

NEWS IN BRIEF

AFMLTA: the national voice for teachers of languages
Providing vision, leadership, representation, advocacy and support for quality teaching and learning of language

February 2023

Happy New Year!

We that hope everyone has had a positive start to the year!

Executive officers of the AFMLTA are looking forward to working with you all again this year, and to many languages educators coming together for the conference in Perth in July.

As the peak body for languages educators in Australia, AFMLTA is once again looking forward to working with the MLTAs in each state and territory to continue to provide vision, leadership, representation, advocacy, professional learning and support for quality teaching and learning of languages in 2023.

The elected Executive officers have already begun working on AFMLTA's strategic initiatives for this year and beyond. Our strategic plan is available on our website.

Online Registrations NOW OPEN

Register now!

Date: 7-9 July 2023

Venue: Mt Lawley Campus, Edith Cowan University, Perth, WA

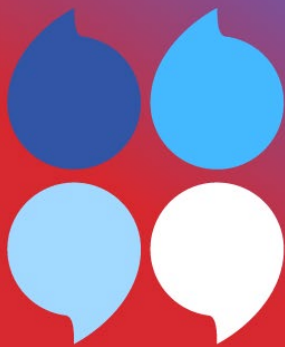

Registrations: Open now! Follow the link below

Program: See information about confirmed speakers

Partnerships: Visit our conference website for information

Register here

Call for Papers Now Open

AFMLTA
2023

International
Languages
Conference

Interested in presenting?

Teachers and academics interested in presenting a paper on classroom based research or innovations in language teaching are invited to submit a proposal via the Submissions page on the AFMLTA website.

Please note carefully the submission guidelines.

We look forward to your submission!

Submit your proposal here

AFMLTA

You received this email because you are represented by AFMLTA through your membership with LTANT, MLTA ACT, MLTANSW, MLTAQ, MLTASA, MLTAT, MLTAV or MLTAWA

Unsubscribe